MOVING THE RIVER

You surely are a truly gifted kid
But you're only as good as The last great thing you did
And where've you been since then Did the schedule get you down
I hear you've got a new girlfriend How's the wife taking it?

If its uphill all the way you should be used to it by now

You must know me, Father its your son
And I know that you are proud of everything I've done
But its the wonders I perform, Pulling rabbits out of hats
When sometimes I'd prefer Simply to wear them

If its uphill all the way you should be used to it and say My back is broad enough sir to take the strain and its

Hello Mother, its your son and aren't you proud, of all I've done

But I'm turkey hungry, I'm chicken free, and I can't break dance on your knee

But its "stay right there son, baby do", while I is itchin' for something new

So watch me hawkeye and understand the force of will, the sleight of hand

Movin' the river, I'm turkey hungry, I'm chicken free and I can't breakdance on your knee

Movin' the river, bucket by spoon, and do you think that they'll like me when

They learn what I do

Movin' the river, money for jam, and it takes such effort to stay where I am ...

- 3) Phil Kelly of London asks about future Sprouts video releases ... a video compilation of Sprouts singles is being planned to coincide with the new LP. PSFC will send out a STOP PRESS announcement to all members when the time arrives.
- 4) Laura Bateson in Stockport wrote in asking if the 30 track double CD called "Hidden Sprouts" was worth buying. This compilation was to be put out by a Japanese company but never got off the ground therefore, Laura, it doesn't exist so don't buy it!
- 5) Bob Evans wants to know if any one in PSFC has a more interesting/different occupation than his. He works in Swindon for a company that restores steam engines and listens to the Sprouts all day long. Well - can anyone top that?
